COMMENTS

Now that the Capoforte SX200 is a reality, it is easy to see that it is an admirable synthesis of functionality and fun, capable of recreating livable and usable spaces in just six meters. The practicality and exciting performance of the outboard engine, combined with the great versatility of the deck thanks to its various equipment options, make the Capoforte SX200 the perfect choice for both families and younger users who want to get started in sailing without a large financial investment, but who are also looking for a boat that stands out and offers a lot of fun.
